DCM

I have tentatively scheduled a DCM for January 14th, as long as weather cooperates.

What's in this issue?

In this issue I will be covering the following:

- Introduction
- DLC
- DCM
- Key Leader Review
- Key Club Week
- Dues
- Social media
- Save the Date
- Pacers Game
- Goals I Hope To Achieve By The End of My Term

Key Leader Review

Key Leader was November 4th- 6th and was held in Brookston, Indiana. I had the honor of being a student facilitator where I was responsible with leading several key clubbers. I assisted the adult facilitator. This was my first Key Leader and I was nervous being a student facilitator but I turned out to be a great weekend and allowed me to perfect my leadership skills. It's a weekend I will surely remember.

“Many of life’s failures are people who did not realize how close they are to success when they gave up.”

-Thomas Edison

Key Club Week

Key Club Week was November 7th- November 11th. The purpose of Key Club Week is to essentially promote Key Club. You can do this by selling donuts before school and pizza after school. Also, by wearing a Key Club shirt every day of the week. However, promoting this great organization that we are all apart of shouldn't be bound to one week. You should always promote Key Club and be proud of what a great organization we are all a part of.

Goals

As many of you know, last year I only served half a term as an LTG. I took over this division and had to basically start from scratch, I had no contacts or anything. I don't want this to be a reality for my replacement. My goal is to get in contact with all seven advisors to this division and obtain their contact information that way we are in good standing for next year. I want to be sure that the next LTG is properly trained and I will help him/her with that. I encourage all of you who are looking for that next step to consider running for Lieutenant Governor, it's a life changing opportunity that will help me throughout my life. It has given me life friends, and leadership skills. I hope we have a good rest of the year together.
